NON-PROFIT INSURANCE

The Skarin Agency has a special heart for non-profits, and we partner with organizations like yours to build specialized insurance programs that fit your unique budgeting and risk management needs. We see it as our job to advocate for you, who advocate for others.

We understand your needs and are ready to help with a team experienced in working with nonprofits - from insuring them, to volunteering our own personal time, even proudly serving as active board members. When you work with Skarin you get a partner not just in protecting your assets, employees or community, but also in collaboration to bring you new networks and growth opportunities.

If it's time to evaluate your insurance needs, Skarin is your advisor to help evaluate which pieces of the pie you do and do not need at this time.

The Skarin Agency's level of service and dedication is crucial to our success and peace of mind knowing that our insurance needs are covered and protected.
